Photo Courtesy: Jumble.com You can still find books of jumbles in bookstores and via online retailers as well as at some vintage shops and maybe even at garage sales. Not in a competitive mood? A variety of different websites host the game, including AARP.OutspellIf you're a fan of Scrabble, then Outspell is a great online word game for you. Check out Word Blitz, which you can access through Facebook's game section. To play classic Jumble, you unscramble letters to make words that reveal a "punny" caption. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Photo Courtesy: Outspell/Arkadium The game lets you choose easy, medium and hard skill levels and offers a built-in dictionary for checking both routine and questionable words to make sure they are actually valid. Not only does it offer a fun way to interact with friends, but you may be surprised by how much it helps you increase your vocabulary!Kitty ScrambleKitty Scramble is another word scramble game, but this one has the added twist of an adorable cartoon cat for all those feline fanatics out there. Once you get all your friends added, be sure to start multiple matches at once, so you have better odds of always having someone to play with when you're online. When you log on, an extra-fluffy feline appears and presents you with various rows of letters. These games come in a variety of genres, making it easy for you to find an option your whole crew will love. You can also download the game to your PC or use your PlayStation 4, Xbox One, Steam or Nintendo Switch. You can even construct obstacle courses or race tracks. Completely free, this brain challenging game lets you compete against the computer to unscramble words and letters to score points. The game has proven addictive to fans for more than 60 years, so you will have plenty of puzzles to explore. @FortniteINTEL/Twitter Don't let the $9 price tag fool you into thinking the game can't be worth much. The creators of Exploding Kittens compare it to UNO, but we think a better comparison would be Twisted UNO. The trick is you only have a minute to do it. The goal is to be the last player or group standing. @GameSpot/Twitter Although there's nothing quite like an in-person gathering with your closest friends and your favorite games, that doesn't mean you can't find ways to improvise when you can't be together. Once you unscramble a word in one row, it will disappear so the letters above it can drop down. Years later, the transition to high-tech devices dampened our traditional fascination with puzzles, but that doesn't mean wonderful options no longer exist. One of the most popular multiplayer word games on the market, Words with Friends is kind of like an online version of Scrabble that you can play solo or with your family and friends. Start by checking out some of the best online games you can play with your friends.Words with Friends 2Remember when Words with Friends was the game to play with all your pals? Best of all, Scramble Words remembers your score for next time, so you never have to start over. As you play, you unlock new vehicle skins, match arenas and customization options. Before your match, you can customize your vehicle to make sure it offers superior performance — or at least looks really cool. Once the word is formed, it will disappear, and the letters on top of it will drop down to the next row. Once you get the hang of it, you can purchase the Fortnite Battle Pass for the game's current season. This free game can be downloaded to your PC, mobile device or gaming console. You all work together to conquer the campaign portion of the game. Photo Courtesy: Word Blitz/Facebook No matter which option you chose, you start with a grid of seemingly random letters. You can search for your friends by their username, or you can sync your social media profile and search for friends that way. We carried around magazine-like books filled with all kinds of mind challenges, from traditional crossword puzzles and scrambles, and pulled them out pretty much anytime we had to be quiet. Try out a casual match to get in the groove or go straight for the big leagues by competing in a ranked game for Rocket League domination. Photo Courtesy: Scramble Words/AARP You score points based on how long it takes you to unscramble all the words, and the higher your score rises, the more difficult the words will become. Photo Courtesy: Words with Friends/Zynga The game was recently updated, and additional features include themed challenges, lightning dual rounds and daily goals to keep your learning on track. Your job is to unscramble them to form words in a crossword puzzle style. The more rounds you win, the higher you will move up in a series of increasingly difficult leagues. Words with FriendsNo "unscramble the word" game list would be complete with mentioning the now iconic Words with Friends that rose to fame thanks to Facebook. The trick is you then use the same letters to find other words to complete the puzzle. Photo Courtesy: Kitty Scramble/Facebook Much like Word Wipe, you have to unscramble the letters to form words in a series of rows. You start with a set of letters that you unscramble to make a word. Part of the fun is that the caption is connected in some way to a cartoon that appears alongside each puzzle. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Photo Courtesy: Roberto Westbrook/Image Source/Getty Images Remember your childhood days when simple word puzzle games were all the rage? Check it out on Facebook, where a large group of cat loving word nerds are ready to welcome you to their community. To survive, you have to scavenge for weapons, vehicles and other resources. Download the Words with Friends 2 app on a compatible Android or Apple device to get started.Rocket LeagueRocket League combines elements of soccer with vehicular gameplay. The game lets you track your progress, unlock rewards and even play against a series of fun fictional characters. Feel like your friends are constantly beating — maybe even humiliating — you? Fill the blank slots above the tiles with the words you form. If you get stuck, you can always reach out for some "kitty help," and your furry partner in unscrambling will supply you with a helpful hint. The player who finds the most words by the end of each round wins trophies that add points to their score. No matter what your skill level may be, Outspell is a great way to keep your mind and spelling skills sharp. No mobile device is necessary to enjoy Rocket League. With a great design optimized for web, iPhone, and Android, you can take your GRE flashcards with you anywhere, so studying on the go is a breeze. If you've got a way with words, don't miss this roundup of some of our favorites, complete with links to help you find them.JumbleJumble is far from new to the word puzzle stage, as hardcopy editions of the game have been appearing in newspapers since 1954. If you draw an exploding kitten, you have a limited amount of time to diffuse it or you're out of the game. Much like the Scrabble board game, Outspell has letter tiles with different values, and bonus spaces are spread across different parts of the board. The goal is to unscramble those letters to find a word that you form by using your mouse to link the letters together. The love affair with words even popped up in the 3-D world in the form of the family favorite Scrabble board game. This single-player mode allows you to play and practice against a bot as you progress through increasingly difficult levels. The Save the World option lets you play with up to four friends. Another mode called Save the World is available for an additional fee. Give the Fortnite Creative mode a try. @Words2 with/Twitter Play one-on-one with a friend to see who can build the most point-worthy words. Each team tries to be the first to reach the round's predetermined point total. Check it out on Washington Post games.Word WipeWord Wipe is another cool word game you can play on the Washington Post game page. Just like the traditional favorite, you build words using the available letters with a goal to create words that give you the highest number of points. You can play by yourself, as a duo or in a squad with up to four other friends. When you're ready to get back in there and play a match with more than one friend, the Lightning Round requires two teams of five players. Other cards include reverse, shuffle, steal a card and peak at a card. Fortnite offers hours of gaming entertainment with your friends. Be sure to take a moment to visit a friend's island and maybe even let them edit your island. Challenge your social media friends to see who can unscramble the most words the fastest or let the game automatically set you up against other random players who are online. Like soccer, the point is to help your team score, but you also need to keep the other team from gaining control of the ball and scoring. While the connection isn't always obvious at first, it's sure to give you a chuckle if you ponder it long enough to get it. Try the Solo Challenge. Matches are short (usually between five and 10 minutes), and the last player standing is the winner. Photo Courtesy: Word Wipe/Washington Post Games Think of it as a cool mixture of a word unscrambling game and a puzzle game like Collapse! Remember to work as quickly as possible to clear as many rows as you can before the time runs out — and watch your score climb the ranks.Word BlitzLooking for a fun word game you can play with friends? You can check it out on Facebook or download the app on either Google Play or the Apple Store. Online games make a terrific alternative when you can't or don't want to leave your home.
