Very new in a small cinema. There is a lot of good humor in the whole movie. Especially district humor. Casti was in other films. He was cooked very convincing and became a son. The program resembles Sudani from Nigeria. Not very complex scenes, but completely expressed. Suraju Venjaramud had much more possibilities. Although Sawbin generally seemed better to connect to the character than Suraj, there was a very difficult scene closer to the end, in which Suraj proved his mercy. A scene that can be destroyed without Suj's control. It wasn't the perfect movie. There were parts that were unconvincing, shown here and there was a lack of experience. But exactly should be encouraged to such attempts. Bijibal's music did not hit me. The emotional relationship with technology reminded me of the movie "She". In the film, they tried to convey technology to people who in ordinary conditions would not like to use it, which was replaced. It also reminded me of the history of Oridat about how the village reacts to electricity, and Android Kunjappan about how the village reacts to robotics. Because there were a few uncompetitive moments between them, I was a bit worried about what the climax would be. It was better than expected.

Light, light watches. Very original channel. A praiseworthy trial is really, but not perfect. The release date of the cinemas: November 7, 2019 Platforms: Amazon Prime Video android Kunjappan Ver 5.25 director Ratish Balakrishnan Dang, 2019. Dedicated to the Android Kunjappan programmer version 5.25 Brand new in Malaysian cinematography. There is a lot of good humor in the film. Mostly rustic humor. There were other films.

Zucker proved very persuasive and became a son. A performance reminiscent of "Sudan of Nigeria". Other than that, there weren't really any complex scenes for Souub, but he became a son. Surj Venjaramod had much more space for the series. While the overall soul seemed better to hook up with the character than in Surja, the ending was a very complex scene where Suroj showed his strength. A scene that can fall to pieces without mastery. It wasn't a perfect movie. There were plays that were unconvincing and inexperienced. However, this is a kind of test that needs to be supported. My head didn't hurt my head. The emotional linking of technologies was reminiscent of the film "zu". The film attempted to bring technology closer to people who typically avoid technology and did a pretty good job.

Oridath also reminded us how the village reacts to electricity and Android Kunjappan talks about how the village reacts to robotics. Since the film had unconvincing parts, I was a little apprehensive about the climax. It was clear. It was better than expected. Slow, light clock. Very special delivery.
