Professional Summary

A balanced, highly capable and technically minded young graduate who works well both on own initiative and in small teams and groups, within and outside academic and technical environments.
 Having recently graduated, I would like to gain further scientific experience in a post-graduate or research role in faculties such as Bristol Doctoral College, both University or a leading laboratory on the European mainland. In addition to gaining work experience and professional development in a laboratory and research environment, my aim is to make an early contribution with a motivated approach and commitment to quality. I am particularly interested in cross-disciplinary research techniques.

Core Qualifications

BSc, Physics (First class honours), Bristol University (2013-2016)

- Dissertation on nanomaterials, particle performance and molecular structure.
- Commendations for laboratory procedural write-ups.

Experience

- Student Office and particularly Excel for data collection, spreads etc.
- Results and technical report writing.
- Teamwork in peer-review groups.
- Occasional volunteer work in sixth form library.
- Extra-curricular accomplishments as a keen hill walker include independence and training for mountain rescue group member (training weekends in Mendip hills and on Benmore).

Education

A-level passes:

- Computer Science (A).
- Mathematics with statistics (B).
- Physics (A).

(2010-2012)
 Eight GCSE passes including English language, mathematics, physics, chemistry and ICT - five of grade A, B, B
 (2008 - 2010)
 The Kings of Wessex High School and Sixth Form, Stratton Road, Cheddar.

The bullet points are used to separate different tasks within each work. The margin moves to the left of the document and now has names of employers, titles or descriptions that cause potential employers to be a unpaid reference. The template can be easily expanded to several pages, but it remains better in the 2 pages for the clarity of the section. View of the template information of this template CV/rá ©. The skills in several technologies and platforms are shown in a grid of skill bars and bubbles of different size. The CV is clearly structured with large -sectional ties and important dates in a sidebar. Finally, a set of free sections of sections from side to side allows the user to add any other information you want to include. Visit the template information. This simple curriculum/CV template presents a large sidebar with key information about you well presented for a rigid reading. The body of the template is presented by large colored section ties (alternating gray and blue). Its main skills can be highly highlighted using progress bars that range from newbies to experts, this is particularly a ostile for programming languages and other skills where time is required for domain. The main sections and their subsections are strongly diverted to capture the attention of the contracting manager. View of the template information This curriculum vitae template is clearly structured in sections separated by lines. Recharge to update your session. Both templates have a clean heading that lists their essential contact information and their expanse headers, so as a subtle coincidental footer. It also would ensure that any mail address to provide be professional and appropriate. If your LinkedIn profile is necessary and updated, you can also choose to include it in this section. The location and date (s) of each achievement or event are clearly highlighted. You registered with another or window. This does not need a title and that is where it declares its full name and contact details, including the direction, the number of teloms and the address (s) of email (s) increasingly common to include only the city and The País in the direction, however. You can also include its complete postal address if you prefer. Make sure to use the same minors, sources and size at all times. My ancient Tex that comes out in Fig. I hope that the following links and examples will help you make a good CV, of course, using Lātex. The design is concise and is the most suitable for few section inputs. The majority of the templates in this category can be used as CVS or currēctrms when including more or less information as necessary. This template presents a header and an elegant feet that includes its contact name and information. Send a friendly request to the author to update the package as an email encrypted and signed as the author wants. The orthographic concealer is excellent, but there are times when you have used a word spelling correctly in the wrong place. Then check it again. If you follow these tips, you can write a CV that stands out between the crowd and receives the correct attention of the recruiter. I have currently created a new class based on the 2013 version, verify another Lātex template for the Europss CV 2013 to obtain more information. MY CV Europass (previous version) à € Frontbackny Europass CV (2013 version) Other increasing styles that you should test the published templates here. The work experience and education are found in personalized gray boxes that, together with the great header and the foot of the gag, instantly attract the reader's eyes to the most important information in the CV. It is not recommended to go below 9 points or more than 14 points in the main body of its use headers bullet points and short sentences. The template is just a página página For a recent graduate, but it can be expanded to several pages for a CV template template. The 11 or 12 points source is the most popular, however, it may be appropriate to increase or decrease slightly in certain situations. It is not necessary to include high school information unless it did not attend the university. It may be difficult to give us a great guy for the things we have done well, but they do not cross the line inventing things. In the United States, a distinction is made between a CV and à € à € 'ca curride, and the first is a long summary of its entire career, while the second is a special shortened version for the work that is applied. It is more fun to update their last achievements, certificates and training as they occur, instead of fighting to remember what he did and when he is requesting a position. It is not good to lie or exaggerate your CV. In particular, I have added a language selector and some corrections. More than unerred.net questions in these last days I had to find another template for my curride, because people suggest that the Europss CV style is not very appreciated in England. A defining characteristic of the design is a relatively large text block of two columns at the beginning of the template to include a summary of interest, achievements, history, etc. You should also provide volunteer or internship positions in this section. Remember just include information if it is relevant. Formation of the perfect length for a CV will be argued while the earth changes, however, the general consensus is around two pages. This class presents four issues of documents that completely change the document design, to obtain a preview of each of these issues, see the previous PDF views below. Inside You can divide more than the subscription content or simply write pages. This template would adapt to a career graduate at the beginning of medium -year -old that looks for a clean, simple and elegant CV with a seamless fuss. View of the template information of this Curride/CV template presents a spacious design with a conservative style designed to clearly obtain and simply your work experience and information information. 2 % It has no entrance, since it is loaded with the Europecv package to define utf8 here } documentclass {utf8, Helvetica, narrow} {Europecv} \usepackage {graphicx} % Required to draw the logo \begin {document} \begin {Europecv} \ecvsection {languages} \ecvitem {English © s} {Complete work domain} \ecvitem {German } \end {document} Fig. The content is organized mainly by the employer with the ability to list multiple positions within the same company. Visit the staff information. This curriculum/CV template has a large header with its clearly shown contact name and contact information. The lists of achievements or deadlines can be built using one of the two environments: long lists with short descriptions or lists of a line. The experience in different companies is listed in an orderly list and includes examples of technology used in each position. I have created my new CV using 'modencv' and presentation letter and there is the result. 1, although the expected output in Fig. To do this in Ubuntu, you can open a terminal housing and add the following text: SUDO APT-GET INSTALL INSTALL TEXTLIVE-FONTS TTF-MARVOSYMG00D à! The DocumentClass Europecv is outdated and does not contain the last Europass, here an example in English. Each position must be listed separately and include the following information: name the company; Its position of position; DURATION OF EMPLOYMENT: The month and the year you a month and the year that ended. The descriptions of the tasks for each work are in bullet points. This is my final result: cv nicola rainiero en.pdf à € my modencv (English version) à € frontbackinphogrogrén in cvcreation. I have modified the last one to create a kind of infotic CV template, you will find information about my article: à € two ideas for an infotic infographic cv using Lātex and Tikz. Cvone only attention: to show the correct symbols (for email, website, etc.), you must install the Marvosym Package. The design is minimalist with a lot of blank spaces and a central characteristic of the template is the optional year of the labels for all entries in the CV. The template is quite compact and manages to squeeze references and grades for courses in small text blocks. Display of the template Information This vitae curriculum template is clearly structured with bold category names for each section. Elegant sources look great in their personal projects, but do not present a professional image in their CV. The last update of the package is 2014 here, so there must be an alternative solution. The currēc/CV content is found in a two -column design that concentrates a large amount of information in a small space. Follow the following tips and advice will help it a great first printed impression. Personal information The first section of your CV must always be your personal information. Do not leave great gaps in your work history. He would adapt to a professional in the middle stage late from his career. View of the template information of this curriculum vitae template has section headings on the left side of the document with section of right. There are many things in this first print Up to 90% of the CVS rejected by recruiters in just 8 seconds. Instead of writing "sales during this time," says sales in "" increased sales by 17% during this. this. If possible, provide a reason for any gap, for example, trips, maternity license or studies. Education and/or training includes the name of your university or university, date of graduation and the title of your Tyulus (s). The clear sectioning within the CurrĀculum/CV template ensures that its achievements are easily navigated and described widely by the major header, then the subtitle. It is always recommended to quantify any achievement if possible. Your contact information and the contact information of your ārbitros are shown in customizable blocks that allow you to expand them as necessary. Visit the template information This curriculum/CV template presents a compact design rich in adequate information for a career professional. This allows you to choose in what aspects of your academic and professional life focus on its importance for the position you are requesting. For a highly qualified technique position, an additional página may be required. If you are currently employed, use the month and start year for "present" or "current"; A summary of the duties carried out; and any remarkable achievement. The inclusion of grade tables in the last passion of the workfor University/University. A curriculum vitae (CV) and a currĀculum are documents used to communicate its work history, education, skills and achievements to a possible employer, or to enter a program such as the Postgraduate School. The template of the presentation letter is also sectioned by the main header, but these headers are not mandatory if simple pages are required. View template information about this Vitae/Curriculum is designed to succinctly show the information of your career and works particularly well to show academic careers. The orthogrous corrector will not highlight "when iā² iā²" with the intention of saying "formula". The CV is necessary to customize for each individual position that is requesting. 2 expected product in Europass OS: Debian 8.7 cannot make that action at this time. Do not be afraid of white space. It would be better used by a recent graduate with limited experience in search of his first job. View of template information if you have any questions, pay someone to review it too. CC-BY/FREE: PHOTOS/PIXABAY Its vitae curriculum (CV), or curriculum, is your personal announcement and your opportunity to cause a good first print with a possible employer. If necessary, verify for the third time. You should also include all the details of any additional training or study that you have done if it is relevant to the position. Other sections: as required, depend on the position that you are requesting, you can consider including some or all the following. Certificates; Licenses; Publications; Honors or awards; Tynic skills; or other skills. It is no longer considered appropriate to include personal information such as marital status, religion, age or the technical origin. Introduction should be some form of introduction, professional objective or personal declaration. The design is more suitable for long CVs, since work descriptions can be quite extensive and can be organized with bullet points or text pages. If your CV is printing, Serif -style sources are the most clear and very easy to read: the sometimes New Roman, Georgia and Century Gothic style sources are serif style sources. The main headers are clearly separated as blocks within which each entry has the style with the date, the title and the description. This acts as an ostile place to communicate information with the potential employer that can otherwise be overlooked simply by reading a list of and work cuts. For electronic versions, the Sans-Serif styles facilitate reading: Arial, Helvetica and Calibri are sans Sans Popular Sans. The source's size is also The instructions are here on the format. 1 Obsolete Europev Package output, Fig. It has things to be proud, point them clearly and not abruptly. The top of the template contains space for profiles and contact information on several platforms and uses family plumber icons. As it is, the workforce is more conducive to medium -length professionals where the work experience dominates the employer's interism. Explain clearly, in a prayer or two, why it is the best person for this particular work, or what experience has to offer. Work experiment of your work experience in reverse chronological order, starting with your most recent or current position. You signed in another tab or window. This template leads to long CV since there is no static number for the amount of information in each section. Take the time to investigate your possible employer and adjust your CV to meet your requirements will be obvious to recruiters and can help you get an interview. Keep the current CV current and precise at all times. The academics tend to have many appointments, honors and publications that this template is compressed to individual lines to maximize the readability and minimize the length. Tickets can be modified easily to house multiple lines or delimit more in subsections as shown in the publication section. Visualization of the template Information This vitae curriculum/curriculum template is designed for software developers to show their skills and experience in a clean and simple way. Changing themes is as simple as changing a word. View of the information template This simple and clean template of currhes immediate general by potential employers. Blank space can increase readability, and maintain the recruiter reading is its main objective. Verify the spelling, grammar and format. It will be Outside at some point and that could be a shameful situation. Understand what recruiters look in these crucial seconds will help you write a first -class CV that can help you move on to the next stage of the recruitment process. It is unlikely that it fits all the previous information in a single página, so the clear format is essential. Make sure you use a clear and easy source to read in an appropriate size. This document design makes this template more suitable for a short or middle length curriculum that takes two pages as a maximum. Unfortunately, there is no ungodly size, since it will want to highlight different experiences and skills for each particular role that you request. Contact information is clearly shown in a gray block. The inclusion of a personal profile allows you to succinctly establish your professional objectives and achievements, while the skills section allows you to enumerate large amounts of technical experience. It has an elegant typeface and moderate use of colors to highlight the most important elements of a look.
